

Moonbeam Children's Book Awards

CELEBRATING YOUTHFUL CURIOSITY & DISCOVERY THROUGH BOOKS & READING

Announcing the call for entries into the 17th annual Moonbeam Children's Book Awards, designed to honor the year's best children's books, publishers, authors, and illustrators. The 2023 Moonbeam Children's Book Awards contest will accept entries through August 5, 2023 for books with a copyright of October 2021-2023, and is open to authors, illustrators, and publishers of children's books written in English or Spanish (for Spanish Language category).

The Moonbeam Children's Book Awards are intended to bring increased recognition to exemplary children's books and their creators, and to support childhood literacy and life-long reading. Medals will be awarded in 41 general categories and 4 e-book categories, covering a full range of subjects, styles, and age groups that children's books are written and published in today. In addition, Moonbeam Spirit Awards are given to a few selected entrants who demonstrate special dedication to children's needs and children's book arts.

As our society has gotten more complex and growing up has become more complicated, children's book authors and publishers have risen to the occasion, creating books that not only celebrate the joys of childhood, but also help kids and families deal with its challenges. The Moonbeam Awards recognize and reward the best of these books and bring them to the attention of booksellers, librarians, parents, and children.

Many of our award-winning books encourage children to be generous and compassionate, stand up to bullies, and believe in fulfilling their dreams. The diversity of the winning publishers proves that promoting childhood literacy knows no boundaries, as medal-winners came not only from mainstream, long-established publishers and university presses, but from small presses, foundations, and self-published authors.

Good luck to all!

MOONBEAM CHILDREN'S BOOK AWARDS ENTRY GUIDELINES

Who May Enter

Authors, illustrators, publishers and self-publishers of children's books, written in English or Spanish (although we have just one Spanish Language category). Authors and illustrators are welcome to enter their books themselves.

Eligibility

Books that are published with a copyright of October 2021-2023 are eligible. The contest is for published books, but ISBN is not required. Submission of galley copies is permissible if finished copies are not yet available. E-books are eligible for entry into our e-book categories, and may also be entered into our regular subject categories where they will be judged alongside print books.

How to Enter

Please select the category or categories in which the book(s) should be judged. Submission for more than one category is acceptable, but each category entry requires an entry fee.

Please fill out the form bearing in mind this will be the information used to contact Medalists. So, if you prefer mail to come to your business address vs. home or you would like emails to go to an author instead of you as a publisher, please provide that information.

What to Send

Please include online registration receipt or completed entry form and check/money order in U.S. funds in the same package as the books. If shipping from a distributor, please use online payment if possible as it makes it easier to match your books to your entry when the books arrive. Pack and tape your books well – lightweight shipping envelopes sometimes arrive empty.

Submit two copies of the title per category entered. For example, when you enter a title in two categories, please send four books; when entering three categories, please send six books. All books entered become the physical property of Jenkins Group and will eventually be donated to local libraries or charities. E-book files will be deleted after judging and results announcements.

Entry Fees (per title, per category)

Early-bird discounts are in place to encourage early entries and spread out the tasks of processing and shelving books. E-book categories are $55 when added to a regular category; the entry fee is the same as regular categories when entering an e-book category only.

Book Series Submission

To be judged in our Book Series categories, at least two series titles must be published at the time of entry, and at least one of those series titles must be published within the eligibility time frame. Send the entire series for judging if 4 or fewer titles. If the series has more than 4 titles, you may send as many copies as you think are needed to fairly represent the series.

Judging Process

Judging will be based on content, originality, design, and production quality, with emphasis on innovation and dedication to children's health and literacy issues. Our judging panel includes experts from the fields of editing, design, reviewing, bookselling and library. Medalists will be named on about September 30, 2022.

Deadlines

The first "early-bird" deadline is February 4, 2023 ($75 per entry); the second early-bird deadline is May 20, 2023 ($85 per entry); and the final entry deadline is August 5, 2023 ($95 per entry). All entries must be posted online or postmarked by the final entry deadline of August 5, 2023, with a ten-day grace period for books to arrive. We will confirm your entry via email and send judging and results updates via email – hence the importance of adding moonbeam@jgibookawards.com to your contacts.

Awards and Recognition

Gold, silver and bronze medals will be awarded in each category. Each winning book will receive a medal, personalized certificate, and 20 sample seals. Medalists and their guests are invited to attend the November 11, 2023 awards ceremony and celebration at no charge.
